NEW YORK JEWELERS ANXIOUS ABOUT GEMS

Are Looking For J. Edward Boeck, Diamond Broker.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS AFFAIR

Maiden Lane Jewelers Who Entrusted Diamonds to the Value of $250,000 To Man, Are Now Anxious to Know His Whereabouts.

New York, May 24.—Half a dozen of the wealthy jewelry firms in the Maiden Lane district are looking for J. Edward Roeck, a diamond broker, to give an accounting of gems of great value entrusted to him on his memoranda, and which he secured to dispose of to alleged wealthy clients.

The exact value of jewerly so secured by brokers is not definitely known, because of the unwillingness of some of the firms to discuss the transaction at this time, but estimates in the jewelry district place their value at from $100,000 to $250,000.

Boeck's room is at No. 170 Broadway, but he has not been seen there for over a week. He lives in splendid style at an uptown club, but inquiries showed that he had absented himself from his room for some time. The firms who entrusted him with valuables have called the attention of the grand jury to the matter, and that body is investigating the case.

Boeck is said to be the son of a Polish nobleman who was banished from his country because he refused to recognize Russian rule. When a young man, Boeck went to the Far East and lived for years in Shanghai. He returned to this country at the opening of the St. Louis exposition in the suite, it is said, of Prince Tu Lun, confidential secretary of the emperor of China, and representative of the imperial Chinese government in charge of the imperial exhibits at the exposition. At the close of the fair he remained in the United States and about six months ago he went into the jewelry business, and was so successful that he was soon in a position to command from the diamond dealers their cost prices and offer to take their goods at cost and split the profits of retail sales with them. J. P. Morgan and U. S. Senator Clark, are among those said to have made large purchases of jewelry through Boeck.

Boeck is about 38 years old and was last heard of in Philadelphia, his birth place. He is said to have lived in Pittsburg for a time.

DR. ULLOA MAKES STATEMENT.

Impracticability of Proposed Confederation of Central American States.

New York, May 24.—Dr. Juan J. Ulloa, consul general of Costa Rica, in this city, has made public a statement regarding Central America wherein he points out the impracticability of the proposed confederation of the six republics—Guatemala, Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica and Panama. He says:

"If we all were well adapted to the change of political existence, it would undoubtedly be a blessing to the six states, whose small size is the strong argument used nowadays to declare that they are always in the wrong. I do not care to enter into the discussion of several present topics which would give a clear insight into the question because I do not understand my true intentions, but suffice it to say that we are not prepared yet to form a sole republic in Central America and the task has to be accomplished by properly directed education by assimilation of laws and currency and by a well established system of interstate railways, cart roads and telegraphs."

HE WAS OUSTED BY DYNAMITE

The authorities were informed that Alexander was hiding in a cave underneath a cabin at Evergreen, five miles from here.

A posse surrounded the cabin, but Alexander defied them to take him and opened fire, seriously wounding Livingston Pierce, a member of the posse.

The cabin was then blown up with dynamite, and as Alexander emerged from the cave, he was shot through the head and killed by Town Marshal J. L. Claverie, of Evergreen. Pierce will recover.

DR. LONG DEFENDS HIMSELF.

Congregational Minister and President Roosevelt Have Controversy.

New York, May 24.—In response to criticism by President Roosevelt that he had only superficial knowledge of the animals concerning which he wrote the Rev. Dr. William J. Long, a well known author of Stamford, Conn., is quoted as having declared that the president is a "killer" of animals and not a naturalist. Mr. Long defends himself against the specific charge of falsity to nature made by the president and does not spare biting terms in criticising Mr. Roosevelt.

President Roosevelt, in an article in a June magazine, was quoted in a general attack upon writers of animal stories who put forth as facts which are no more than interesting fictions, with animals as principals.

"William J. Long is perhaps the worst of these nature-writing offenders," the president says. "It is his stories, I am told, that have been put, in part, into many of the public schools of the country in order that from them the children may get the truths of wild animal life."

Rev. Dr. Long is a retired Congregational clergyman, a graduate of Harvard, Heidelburg and Andover, and the author of "Ways of Woodfolk," and other similar works.

POLICE OF NEW YORK STILL WITHOUT CLEW

Mysterious and Horrible Murder of Young Girl.

WAS FOUND DEAD IN A FIELD

Girl Had Been Shockingly Assaulted and Then Killed with Knife—Crime May Have Been Committed by Insane Man, Think Detectives.

New York, May 24.—After a week's work the police are as far from a definite clew as ever to the identity of the murderer of Amelia Charlotte Saffeldt, the 15-year-old girl who was shockingly assaulted and killed with a knife in a field at Elmhurst in Queensborough.

Borough Inspector Flood personally has charge of the case and he has admitted that his detective staff had nothing to show for their efforts.

Every detail of the crime has been carefully gone over, and no love affairs of the girl which might possibly have led to the crime have as yet come to light.

Information gained from an employing carpenter may perhaps lead to something tangible. This carpenter told the police that he had paid off 20 men in a wood who had worked near Elmhurst for two months past, several of the men had been drinking and at noon they started for Manhattan.

Several of Inspector Flood's detectives think the crime was committed by an insane man, owing to the many revolting phases.

Seventh Day's Session.

Birmingham, May 24.—The seventh day's session of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States was opened with devotional exercises led by Dr. W. H. Woods, of Baltimore. A CLEVER POEM.

Tom R. McBeath Made a Clever Hit at Entertainment Last Week.

The Sun has already contained mention of the fact that the Junior Class of the Gainesville Graded and High School entertained their classes and friends at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Tom F. McBeath on Friday evening of the past week.

The program was one of unusual merit, but the poem of Tom R. McBeath, which is overflowing with wit and good humor, is especially worthy of merit, and after considerable persuasion the author has permitted its publication, which is as follows:

JUNIOR CLASS POEM. THE CLASS OF '08.

Kind friends, I'm glad to greet you, but would say in this connection,
I wasn't born a poet, but was made one by election.
So, pass by my imperfection, and for errors do not hunt,
And your sympathies extend me while I do my little stunt,
Which is, on your mental canvas to draw you, while you wait,
A true and faithful picture of the Class of 1908.

There's an even dozen of us, if you reckon us by number;
But should you wish to count us as the millmen measure lumber,
It may strike you as peculiar—may even make you laugh—
But as told by size we're only just eleven and a half;
While as regards our gender—and perhaps that's why we shine
So very, very brilliant—we are two-thirds feminine.
And so, without more preface, half in earnest, half in fun,
I'll trot them out before you, and present them one by one.

First of all comes Bonnie Bessie with her tall and queenly air,
Who leads her class as naturally as some girls bang their hair;
Who takes to mathematics as a kitten takes to milk,
But who, everywhere you take her, is just as fine as silk.

And next comes Kate, our sunbeam, a regular little fairy,
Who never borrows trouble, but who's always bright and merry.
But the way she can crib answers, and also, when she wishes,
Get all around her teachers, is a sin to little fishes.
She's authority on history, and in Latin reads 'em some,
But her specialty's the science and the art of chewing gum.

The next is Lena. She's our pride, our model little woman;
She can write like Lucy Larcome, and read Latin like a Roman;
She's a favorite with her teachers, and always does her work
With diligence and patience, and was never known to shirk.
But once just get her rattled—O Jordan's stormy Strand!
She can surely tune up for you, and bawl to beat the band.

The next in line is Mattie B., to all her classmates dear;
She's just our good big sister, and we all look up to her;
She stands high in our opinion, six feet; but that's not all,
She's every bit as good and kind and true as she is tall.

There's Annie next, our beauty; and we challenge any class
To show a better looker; for there never was a glass
Flashed back a prettier picture when the softest light was o'er it,
Than she sees in her mirror when she smiling stands before it.
But I wouldn't have you thinking all her good points go to looks,
The class has not a member that is brighter in her books.

The next is Mattie May, a girl as good as gold all through;
She's studious, kind 'o sober, but loyal, firm and true,
And will someday walk a woman amid the world's great crowd,
Of whom her high school classmates will evermore be proud.

There's Gladys next, a Northern rose transplanted to the South;
You'd hardly think that butter would melt within her mouth;
She's such a mild say-nothing, so timid and demure
That she's got the rabbits faded—but don't you be too sure!
Just mention to her chummies how reserved she is, and shy,
Then watch 'em kind 'o giggle and wink the other eye!

And last of all, the sisters—but only least in that
There's barely fifty inches twixt her shoe-heels and her hat—
Is Heloise, our brilliant and winsome little lass,
Who masters all her studies—and bosses all her class.
She's a lightning calculator, and can tell you to a minute,
When she sees a bag of peanuts just how many there are in it.

The boys come next. There's Jasper, who though, as you all know,
Would never take a premium at a first-class beauty show,
Is a sturdy, staunch good fellow, and for all he keeps it dark,
High up on Fame's white pillar intends to make his mark;
Who, though he may not get there first, when he decides to try,
You can set it down as certain, will get there by and by.

There's Douglas with a tendency to project with machines,
And a turn for electricity, and who most surely means
Some day to beat Marconi, and snatch the wreath of fame
From off the brow of Edison to deck his own fair name.

And then there's model Wiley, as timid as a rabbit;
Who hasn't, as we know of, one single, lone bad habit;
And who, if life is spared him, will some day never fear,
Climb high up Fortune's ladder as a civil engineer.

Then I make up the dozen—or to speak with more precision,
I'm what you have left over after making this division.

So here we are before you, the pick of all the State.
O there's nothing that can match us, The Class of 1908!
"And after graduation, what?" O, we'll have no time to tarry;
Each boy will have to hunt a job; each girl, a man to marry.

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the appoval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

The Sun's Appreciation.

The city department of The Sun is under obligations to Prof. Crowe of the University faculty for many courtesies extended during the term just coming to a close. The reporter for some reason has been unable to get in close touch with other members of the faculty which would have tended of mutual benefit to both this paper and the University, but through the energy and kindness of Prof. Crowe, we have been enabled to secure what information the paper has published from time to time regarding the University and its affairs, and the city editorial department appreciates very highly his assistance, without which we would have been virtually "at sea."

We also desire to extend our thanks and appreciation to Prof. A. W. Blair, of the experimental department, for his friendly attitude in aiding the paper whenever it was possible for him to do so.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THURSDAY'S WORK AT STATE CAPITOL

Many Measures of Importance Passed, Some With Opposition.

BOTH HOUSES ARE BUSY

The Legislature is Now Rushing to Dispose of the Large Number of Bills in Consideration, in an Endeavor to Avoid an Extra Session.

The Senate, notwithstanding resolutions adopted, has not yet begun night sessions, though a strong but unsuccessful effort was made Thursday prior to adjournment to enforce this resolution. The House, however, began its three sessions a day Thursday.

The new drainage bill of Senator Crane, which passed the ordeal of second reading Thursday, has, with its amendment offered by the author, been engrossed.

The House adopted a resolution introduced by Mr. Reese of Escambia commending the course of the trustees of the internal improvement fund in contesting the suits of the railroad and land grant companies for swamp and overflowed lands.

The House unanimously passed Senator Cone's bill providing that the State Board of Education deed to the city of Lake City for educational purposes the old State University property and appropriating $15,000 to be paid to the city of Lake City, which is to give a receipt in full for all claims in connection with the University against the State.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The Senate was called to order at 9 a. m., President Harris in the chair and a quorum present.

In the regular order there were no new resolution or bills introduced.

In conformity with the notice given Wednesday, Senator Adams moved that the vote be reconsidered, by which was adopted an amendment to the Knight (of Citrus) increased salary bill, providing that such increase be not effective until 1909, or after the expiration of the terms of the present incumbents of these offices. On roll call the motion to reconsider the vote was lost, 13 to 18. Senator Beard then moved indefinite postponement of the bill. Senator Adams raised the point of order that the bill was not under consideration but simply on reconsideration of vote. The president ruled the point not well taken and roll call was ordered and the bill was indefinitely postponed by vote of 20 to 11.

Senate bill No. 211, by Mr. Crane—Amending Section 2072, general statutes relating to dockets to be kept by justices of the peace, read second time and ordered engrossed.

The hour for the special order having arrived, this order being Senate bill No. 421, by Mr. Crane, known as the drainage bill. The bill was read in full the second time, Senator Adams in the chair, and a number of amendments offered. The bill was ordered engrossed.

Not a drop of Alcohol

Doctors prescribe very little, if any, alcohol these days. They prefer strong tonics and alteratives. This is all in keeping with modern medical science. It explains why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is now made entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor.

The best way to absorb Central America is to let Mexico civilize it first.

Big Chief Foraker carries a pipe of peace in one hand, and a tomahawk in the other.

The Foraker lion and the Taft lamb have changed their minds about lying down together.

Having found out where he stands, Senator Foraker refuses to sit down and keep quiet.

If Miss Mabelle Gilman isn't a blushing bride, a good many people will think she ought to blush.

Daily bulletins from Madrid indicate that King Alfonso is getting along as well as could be expected.

Bellamy Storer, Poultney Bigelow, J. Ralph Burton and E. H. Harriman are all keeping very quiet these days.

A London professor declares that English girls wink the left eye. They probably consider that one of their rights.

Senator Rayner doesn't seem to agree with Col. John Temple Graves as to superlative unmistakableness of Col. Bryan.

The retirement of Castro from baseball is much more important than the death of the little South American ruler would be.

The report is denied that the Pacific Coast people are waiting to attend the Jamestown Exposition by way of Panama canal.

The proposition to amalgamate the Central American Republics under a strong protectorate, would be all right if they could get one strong enough to hold 'em.

With Pete the bulldog and Senator Foraker in Washington again, the reception of callers at the White House is rather uncomfortable for even the Taftites.

Virginia, and indeed the whole South, has contributed quite its full quota of brilliant writers to the gallery of American immortals. It is interesting to note that, during the forty years of history, Lippincott's magazine has brought out the first offerings of a large number of Southern writers. And now—issued most appropriately while the Jamestown exposition is anew calling attention to the debt which our whole land owes Virginia—comes Miss Kate Goode's dramatic poem, "A Princess of Virginia." With fine dramatic fire and splendid poetic conception, this really brilliant play in five acts deals with Pocahontas, Rolfe, Smith, Powhatan, and others. It is sure to be hailed as a notable contribution to the literature of the South, written as it is, by a Virginian. The cover contains an interesting portrait of Pocahontas. The complete novel by Frank Danby, the short stories by writers of national reputation, and a full complement of articles, poems, and humor, make up this unusually rich number of Lippincott's—the June issue. Over 150 pages.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBATE.

The magazine debate between Mr. Bryan and Senator Beveridge on the constitutionality question of the reserved rights of the States and incidentally of the Beveridge bill to regulate labor in factories, known as the child labor bill, has been generally read. To Democrats the discussion is of transcendent interest, for it foreshadows a much more important debate within the Democratic party on the issues of State rights and home rule. The first installment comes from Senator Rayner of Maryland in The Baltimore Sun of May 13, in which he summarizes the policies advocated by Mr. Bryan as follows:

"First—Ultimate ownership by the Government of all the interstate railroads of the United States.

"Second—The initiative and referendum.

"Third—Congress to have the right to arbitrarily fix the total product of all interstate corporations, quasi public and private, and to destroy their business if they transgress the congressional limit.

"Fourth—The supreme power of Congress to prescribe the terms upon which all interstate commerce shall be conducted, and whenever Congress (which, of course, means the dominant party) conceives it to be against public policy, it shall have the right absolutely to prohibit commercial intercourse between the States upon the interdicted article (as fully exemplified in the provisions of the child labor bill.)

"My own deliberate judgment is that if we embody these doctrines in a Democratic platform the next step that it will be necessary to take will be to change the name of the party and revive the name of 'Federalists' or take some other title suitable to the occasion; and then, after we have done this, the final step will be, with our leaders in the van, in solemn procession to accompany the remains of democracy to their resting place, and when we are engaged in performing the last sad rights and obsequies, and are commemorating her departed virtues, do not let us forget to recount the tragic manner of her death, so that prosperity shall know that in the hour of her brightest hopes and most alluring prospects, determined to end her great historic career, she threw herself upon the poisoned weapon of Federal Centralization, and died of a self-inflicted wound."

Democratic voters will have to decide these issues before they elect and instruct delegates to the next national convention and to do so must investigate the arguments on both sides to arrive at a just conclusion. Mr. Bryan has so clearly stated his case that it is not necessary to repeat it. Senator Rayner's summary has led The Baltimore Sun to say:

"The discussion of all these theories of government; the suggestion of Secretary Root that the constitution be changed by construction so as to deprive the States of their reserved rights; the Beveridge bill and Mr. Bryan's doctrines—all these things have tended to direct public attention to questions of policy and constitutional law which have been dormant almost during this generation. Such a masterly exposition as that of Senator Rayner, by so profound a student of the constitution as he is, will do much to bring people back to the old path."

Damages to the amount of $35,000 have just been assessed against the New York Central Railroad by a New York jury for the destruction of "the lower third of a leg." That is said to be the largest verdict ever given for a like injury. What would it have been, had the middle or upper third been the portion lost?

There are rumors afloat that unpleasant developments may come from the foreign naval display at the Jamestown Exposition. The British squadron was to have been there for the celebration on the 13th of May. But instead of that it weighed anchor and sailed south to Bermuda. Of course, if inquiry were made of the Navy Department, one would be assured that this departure has been arranged ten years ago and it was just what was provided for on the program. But as a matter of fact it was not expected at all. The British squadron was to have been a part of the display, and the story goes that there was a decided flare-up between the British commander and Admiral Evans in command of the American squadron. As all who know him are aware, Admiral Evans' temper is none of the longest. He has always been on very good terms with the British sailormen, and he and Admiral Chas. Beresford, the "Condor" Charlie of the British navy, are warm personal friends. But he has been decidedly sore on all things English since the incident at Jamaica when Governor Sweetenham ordered Admiral Davis of the American relief squadron out of the harbor. Those who ought to know say that the incident was brought up again during the meeting of the two fleets at Jamestown, and the exchange of words between the two admirals was responsible for the sudden departure of the British squadron. More about the incident may come out later.

The fellow with the didn't-know-it-was-loaded gun has laid it aside for a season and gone to rocking the boat. The force of fool-killers seems inadequate to cope with the increasing supply.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

THE BOARDING HOUSE.

Advantages of Its Pacific Influence In Married Life.

"Oh, dear, but this boarding house life is simply awful!" said the sweet young thing as she sipped her hot chocolate at a Chestnut street soda counter in company with an elderly fair companion. "I really don't see how you stand it," she continued in the same plaintive voice. "I am sure I shouldn't if I were happily married, as you are. I would have a house of my own, a cozy little place where there would be just myself and husband, serene and happy in our knowledge of each other's love." The older woman's eyes twinkled, albeit there was a somewhat grim look about the corners of her mouth, as she made reply: "My dear, you are very young and have lots to learn. Some unmarried philosophers on married life tell us that the boarding house is a feeder for the divorce courts and that it breeds discord for married people. Don't you believe them. When you have been married to a mere man as long as I have, you will find that the knowledge that your next room neighbor can hear if your voice is raised in anger and will tell your fellow boarders if you are heard to quarrel will have a valuable deterrent effect on not only yourself, but your lord and master as well, and many a cross word will be stifled in birth rather than have your disagreements published to the household."—Philadelphia Record.

Animals in Groups.

The ingenuity of the sportsman is perhaps no better illustrated than by the use he puts the English language to in designating particular groups of animals. The following is a list of the terms which have been applied to the various classes: A covey of partridges, a nide of pheasants, a wisp of snipe, a flight of doves or swallows, a muster of peacocks, a siege of herons, a building of rooks, a brood of grouse, a stand of plover, a watch of nightingales, a clattering of coughs, a herd or bunch of cattle, a flock of geese, a bevy of quails, a cast of hawks, a swarm of bees, a school of whales, a shoal of herrings, a herd of swine, a skulk of foxes, a pack of wolves, a drove of oxen, a sounder of hogs, a troop of monkeys, a pride of lions, a sleuth of bears, a gang of elks.

Identified Himself.

"Some people have odd ways of identifying themselves," said a disgusted westerner visiting New York. "The other night a man came up to me in my hotel and claimed old time acquaintance. I saw visions of the confidence game at once and fought shy. How do you think he convinced me? Well, sir, he finally pulled out one of his eyes. Yes, sir, he did. It was a glass eye, of course, but I then realized his peculiar affliction despite a greatly altered appearance. But, do you know, it wasn't a pleasant performance. In fact, I suggested that he ought to carry a duly certified identification card."—New York Globe.

JUDGE HARGIS NOT GUILTY.

Another Chapter Closed in Famous Breathitt Feud Case.

Lexington, Ky., May 244.—Almost exactly three years after the shooting of Town Marshal Cockrill, at Jackson, a verdict of not guilty was returned here Thursday in the case of Judge James Hargis, the first of those who were jointly charged with that murder, and another chapter in that famous Breathitt county feud annals was concluded.

On June 21, 1904, Thomas Cockrill was shot in the court house at Jackson, dying at Lexington, where he was taken for medical attention.

During the trial several witneses swore that Judge Hargis, his brothers and Sheriff El Callahan had entered into a murder cospiracy promising immunity to any one who would shoot Cockrill. Dr. B. D. Cox and J. B. Marcum, all three of whom have since died by shooting.

The defense, however presented the testimony tending to disprove the conspiracy charge and Judge Hargis, testifying on his own behalf, denied all connection with the shooting.

Curt Jett, who confessed to killing Marcum, for which he was given a life sentence, was a witness against Judge Hargis.

The next trial in this series will be called at Sandy Hook, Elliot county, on Monday, May 27, when the same defendants will be tried for the Murder of B. D. Cox, a change of venue having been taken from the county of Breathitt.

When the verdict in the Hargis trial was announced Thursday a great cheer arose from the friends of Judge Hargis, who crowded the court room, and it was necessary for Circuit Court Judge Parker to rap repeatedly for order.

It is believed now that the cases of Alexander and Elbert Hargis and Ed Callahan, also charged with complicity in plots to kill Cockrill, will be filed away in court here. The evidence is practically the same against the other three men as well as Bill Britton, who is awaiting a third trial for this killing. Britton gave bond Thursday morning for his appearance at the next term of court in the sum of $7,500. His bond was signed by Judge James Alexander Hargis.

Young Rome Man Missing.

Rome, Ga., May 24.—Dave Latham, a young man residing in the fourth ward, this city, has been missing since Sunday, and up to this date has not been heard from by his family or friends. He left home early Sunday morning, stating that he was going to Sunday school, but so far has failed to return. The wife and other relatives of Latham are much grieved over the sudden disappearance, and none of them can advance any idea as to where he could have gone.

Murder Charge Is Made.

Nashville, Tenn., May 24.—At Cookeville, the grand jury returned a true bill against W. S. Bryant and Mrs. Sadie Vestal, charging them jointly with the murder of Chalmeres Vestal, at Baxter, last February. She stoood high in society in the county before Vestal was killed. Bryant was immediately placed under arrest, and placed in jail without bail. An effort is being made to bring the case to trial next week.

Will Issue Call Soon.

Atlanta, May 24.—Hon. J. A Aycock, president of the Georgia Crushers' association, will, from his home in Carrollton, Ga., in a few days, issue a call for this association to meet in annual convention at Atlantic Beach, Fla., on June 24 and 25, 1907.

The Farmer's Wife

Is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach-churn is foul it makes foul all which is put into it?

The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour and foul stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings, sores, or open, eating ulcers and all humors or diseases arising from bad blood.

If you have bitter, nasty, foul taste in your mouth, coated tongue, foul breath, are weak and easily tired, feel depressed and despondent, have frequent headaches, dizzy attacks, gnawing or distress in stomach, constipated or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after eating and poor appetite, these symptoms, or any considerable number of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver with the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant derangements.

The best agents known to medical science for the cure of the above symptoms and conditions, as attested by the writings of leading teachers and practitioners of all the several schools of medical practice, have been skillfully and harmoniously combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will but mail a postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of his booklet of extracts from the standard medical authorities, giving the names of all the ingredients entering into his world-famed medicines and showing what the most eminent medical men of the age say of them.

THE POCKET SAVINGS BANK EPIDEMIC RAGES FIERCELY .....IN GAINESVILLE.....

Beneficent epidemics are scarce, but such a one has struck Gainesville, and people of every station and occupation have the fever.

It is most interesting and instructive to study the constantly changing line of applicants for Pocket Banks as it files through The Sun's business office. There is the mother, bringing her daughter with her and securing a bank for the girl, another for herself, and inquiring anxiously whether she may have another for the boy who is at work. She receives it promptly.

Boys come—some are steady, serious-faced chaps who have begun to think on their own account, and who ask questions about the operation of the scheme which show the results of rubbing up against the world.

Then the High School girls and boys, gay and active, while the workman and business man "slip in" during the noon hour to get a bank for the boy or girl at home, after asking one or two leading questions to make sure there is no joke about the 25 cents.

.....THE PLAN IN OUTLINE.....

A CARD FROM "CITIZEN."

He Believes That Nothing Should Interfere With Commencement Sermon

Editor Sun—The commencement services of the University, to be held at the Tabernacle on Sunday morning, will be of far more than ordinary interest to all the people of Gainesville. This is the first commencement of the University in its new home. A distinguished minister from another State and president of a sister college will pay his first visit to our city, and preach the baccalaureate sermon. The churches will dispense with the morning services, in honor of the occasion. Everybody, of every age and religious denomination and calling in life, should attend this service and crowd the Tabernacle and help to make this a memorable occasion.

The undivided devotion of the people of Gainesville to the East Florida Seminary had large influence in the decision of the question of the location of the new University. Its growth and success must depend very much on the united love and co-operation of our entire population. The whole State will believe in it only so far as we show that we are a unit in believing in it. The institution is a part of our corporate existence. Let us show the Board of Control, Dr. Sledd and his faculty and the students that we are with them heart and soul, by filling the Tabernacle Sunday morning. A CITIZEN.

UNIVERSITY EXERCISES.

There will Be an Interesting Debate At Tabernacle This Evening.

The closing exercises of the University of Florida, which will begin today and last until next Thursday, will begin this evening at 8 o'clock, and will comprise a debate by the Dixie Literary Society the question for debate being the Annexation of Cuba to the United States. The affirmative will be represented by D. S. Bryan and James Kirk, while the negative will be ably supported by T. J. Cason and M. L. Moremen.

The exercises will be held in the Tabernacle, owing to the fact that it will be impossible for many to reach the University buildings. The faculty has furnished no data whatever, with the exception of a program which was kindly loaned by Prof. Crowe, hence we are unable to furnish further information as to the nature of the program outside of this information.

The exercises will be held this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, and the public is invited.

Attention, Public.

There will be a joint meeting of the Gainesville Board of Trade and the citizens of Gainesville at the council chamber at 10 o'clock, on May 30, who will confer with representatives of the railroads entering the city in regard to location of the proposed union station. A full attendance of everyone interested is requested and desired. B. F. HAMPTON, Sec.

Epworth League Social.

The Senior Epworth League of the First Methodist Church held an enjoyable lawn fete at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Padgett Thursday evening, which was highly enjoyed, and at which delicious refreshments were served. There were a number present, and all expressed themselves as being highly pleased.

Patrons who have not paid their telephone bills for the month of May will have their service discontinued on Monday, the 27th, if not paid by then. The collector is out and if you don't happen to see him you had better call at the office.
